LONDON, MAY 6.

FROM Paris they write that the true reaſon has been lately diſcovered why the Pruſſian Commiſſaries have of late bought up ſuch immenſe magazines of bread-corn, and ſo great a number of horſes in Podolia; for as it was publicly rumoured that the Pruſſian agents paid ready money for every thing they bought, and that too in Poliſh ſilver, all the merchants, &c. far and near, brought their commodities to the Pruſſian agents, to whom they ſold the ſame, to the amount of many millions of tinfe's (a tinfe is in value about ſix-pence Engliſh money); but, upon examination, this Poliſh ſilver coin was found to be counterfeit, and not worth one fourth part of the real Poliſh coin. Two of the greateſt bankers at Warſaw, having been judicially convicted of being concerned in this iniquitous ſcheme, have been publickly executed; notwithſtanding which public execution, the Pruſſian troops, now quartered in Great Poland, ſtill force the inhabitants of that province to take this counterfeit coin in all their payments. That many magazines of the Ruſſians, which has been in danger of falling into the hands of the Confederates, had alſo been ſold to theſe Pruſſian Commiſſaries, and the Pruſſian Eagle, or Great Seal, had been affixed upon them, in order to ſecure them from any violence of the Confederates; and that all theſe magazines had been paid for in the ſame counterfeit money, ſo that by theſe ſeveral operations this counterfeit money is now current all over Poland, which circumſtance occaſions great confuſion, and almoſt a total ſtagnation in the trade of that extenſive kingdom.

Letters from Hamburgh, dated April 26, remark that ſeveral merchants there had received different commiſſions from the Britiſh Court to furniſh the palace at Zell immediately with the richeſt and moſt magnificent furniture of all ſorts, for the reception of the young Queen Matilda: and the ſame correſpondent adds, that it is known of a certainty at Hamburgh, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has negociated a treaty of marriage between his niece Philipina Auguſtina Amelia, and his preſent Daniſh Majeſty. This Princeſs is in her 27th year, and is daughter to Frederick William, Margrave of Brandenburgh-Schwedt. The other ſiſter of this Princeſs is married to Prince Ferdinand of Pruſſia.

A letter from Berlin, remarks, that "within theſe two days, Baron Swieten, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Vienna, has had no leſs than three private audiences of his Majeſty." Another letter obſerves, that "the frequent and private audiences of Baron Swieten remain no longer a ſecret at that Court; at leaſt it is the prevailing opinion here, that his Imperial Majeſty has demanded the Princeſs Sophia Albertina, ſiſter of his preſent Swediſh Majeſty, in marriage. The Dowager Queen of Sweden, who is ſiſter to our auguſt Sovereign, is here (at Berlin) and her daughter, the Princeſs Sophia Albertina abovementioned, is alſo at our court. The only point now kept as a myſtery is, whether this young Princeſs, who is a Proteſtant, will become a convert to the church of Rome, or whether the young Emperor may, agreeable to the laws of the empire and of Sweden, marry an unconverted Proteſtant."

The beginning of next week Dr. Solander and Mr. Banks will embark in order to proceed on their intended voyage for the South Seas.

MAY 7. They write from Paris of the 4th ult. that the Prince of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttel has juſt entered into the Emperor's ſervice, as Colonel of horſe.

Extract of a letter from a Daniſh merchant to his correſpondent in London.

"I don't blame you for defending the Queen Matilda, you are an Engliſhman; but if you are in earneſt, and really believe ſhe is innocent, then I muſt tell you, that had you yourſelf but known a tenth part of the heinous circumſtances laid to her charge, you would have condemned her yourſelf, though you were the beſt friend in the world to the Houſe of Hanover. For the truth is, her conduct has been ſo glaringly culpable, that the common people could not avoid paſſing the ſame cenſorious reflections upon her here as the common people did upon her late mother in London. You can form no idea of the execration in which the Britiſh nation is held here, entirely upon her account, ſeeing the common people conclude that all the Engliſh, whom they meaſure by this Queen's imprudent conduct, are equally bad and vicious. This young woman, who is called here the Meſſalina of Denmark, if perchance ſhe had not ſeen Struenſee for twenty-four hours, would be ſending for him all over the town of Copenhagen, meſſenger after meſſenger, and ſometimes twenty of them in a day. So great was her jealouſy, that ſhe forbid many ladies of diſtinction the Court upon the moſt groundleſs ſuſpicions of their being great with Struenſee. As an inſtance of her weakneſs, as well as want of common prudence, I muſt tell you, that laſt Chriſtmas-day ſhe made Struenſee a preſent of a piece of new-faſhioned Engliſh ſilk, to make him a bed gown; but Struenſee, who it ſeems had a greater paſſion for a favourite Italian actreſs than for the young Queen, made a preſent of this Engliſh-manufactured ſilk to this actreſs; ſhe, proud and vain of her conqueſt, had it immediately made up, and appeared in all the public walks. The Queen happening one day to ſee her walking in the ſtreets in this new-acquired dreſs, ſtung with rage and jealouſy at her fair rival's ſuperior charms, inſtantly diſpatched ſome of her domeſtics with orders to tear the gown from off her back; the royal orders were immediately carried into execution, and the lovely actreſs was accordingly ſtripped ſtark naked in the public ſtreets, in the preſence of a thouſand ſpectators. I leave you, Sir, to make your own comments on this true ſtory, and am perſuaded you cannot but think the whole Daniſh nation are happy in getting rid of her."

Letters from Spain ſay, that the black vomit was broke out at Cadiz, which carried off a great number of people.

MAY 8. The Brazil fleet, conſiſting of 16 ſhips, under convoy of two men of war, arrived at Liſbon the 11th of laſt month, with rich cargoes of 250 octaves of diamonds, and upwards of five millions of gold in cruſades.

Extract of a letter from Cracow, April 18.

"This morning General Branicki with part of his corps arrived here, he brought with him two French officers, which his Uhlans had taken near Oſwiecim, and were marching to Biala; one is Baron Malzhan, the other Captain Toneſac, both of the Legion Lorraine. Another party of Uhlans and Coſſacks have taken ſeveral waggons loaded with clothes for the ſoldiers, &c. The Imperial Miniſter is daily expected at Warſaw. Monſieur Simolin who is at Jaſſy has already begun a correſpondence with the Turkiſh Seraſkier, who is poſted on the other ſide of the Danube; four more Ruſſian Miniſters are expected at Jaſſy, and the Turkiſh Seraſkiers, with the Pruſſian Miniſter, eſcorted by 300 men, are likewiſe expected at the before mentioned place."

The Seaford and Southampton frigates of war, commanded by Captain Macbride, are now in the Downs, waiting for their laſt orders, to convey her Majeſty of Denmark into the territories of Hanover.

MAY 9. Thurſday laſt the Hon. Michael Franklin, Eſq; ſet out for Portſmouth, in order to embark for his government of Nova-Scotia.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, dated April 28.

"Saturday laſt, early in the forenoon, the Committee of Inquiry pronounced ſentence againſt John Frederick Struenſee and Enevold Brant, which was accordingly preſented to the Privy Council, without his Majeſty's attendance. In the afternoon, the Privy Council met again; in the evening, towards ſeven o'clock, the King arrived from Charlottenburg, and preſided at the Council Board, when, after confirming the ſentence, he went directly to the Italian Opera.

"Same day, at twelve at noon, both the priſoners were acquainted, by their Counſellors, with their ſentences. Struenſee received and read it with extraordinary compoſure, which naturally aſtoniſhed all thoſe preſent; to whom he obſerved they ought, as he did, to impute it to his conſtant "apprehenſions and his long preparations for his unhappy fate."——His uneaſineſs appeared much greater, when he found Brant's ſentence equal to his own. Brant alſo ſeemed tolerably reſigned on hearing his ſentence; but the following morning his ſpirits totally ſunk, there being no barber ſent him, as uſual, to be ſhaved. Meſſrs. Munter and Itee have been, ſince Saturday, ſeldom abſent from Struenſee and Brant. Both priſoners delivered into their Counſellors hands, on their leaving them on Saturday laſt, two letters, one for the King, and one for the Committee of Inquiry. Yeſterday they both took the Holy Sacrament.

"Struenſee's ſentence takes up five full ſheets of paper: Among the charges therein contained againſt him are, his having aſſumed too great a power to himſelf; his injuring the King's treaſure of more than fifteen tons of gold; his forging (or falſifying) a draught; his diſcharging the guards; the ſuſpicious arrangements he had been ordering within the walls of this place, &c.

"Brant's ſentence expreſsly ſays, that on account of his deſigns agitated immediately againſt the ſacred perſon of his Majeſty, the exceptions he made could not be admitted, and therefore declared guilty and condemned; towards the concluſion of their ſentence, it is added, in virtue of the Daniſh Law Book, B. VI. Cap. IV. Art. 1. both Count John Frederick Struenſee, and Count Enevold Brant, having made themſelves guilty, and as an example to others, ſtand juſtly condemned to forfeit their honours, lives, and property; and are entirely degraded from the dignities belonging to their titles of Earls; their Earls Coat of Arms is to be broken by the hands of the common hangman: this being done, their right hand will be cut off, next their heads, then will their bodies be quartered, and laid upon the wheel, and their heads and hands fixed upon iron ſpikes.

"The aforeſaid dead warrants were this morning executed in a field without the eaſtern gate; a ſcaffold was erected of nine yards in heighth, and eight yards ſquare, whither both the priſoners were carried in hackney coaches; in the firſt went the Attorney-General, and ſome attendants; Brant appeared firſt on the ſcaffold; he had on a gold-laced hat, a green ſuit of clothes, with gold binding, and boots; he ſpoke for ſome little time to his clergyman Mr. Hee, after which the ſentence was read and executed; his head was ſeveral times expoſed to the view of an immenſe croud of ſpectators; next appeared Struenſee on the ſcaffold, accompanied by Dr. Munter, having his hat in his hand, and dreſſed in a blue ſuperfine ſuit; he ſpoke to Dr. Munter; when done, his ſentence was executed in every ſhape like the foregoing one; their corpſe were carried to the uſual place of execution to be there expoſed; Struenſee behaved very penitently, but this cannot be ſaid of Brant, for his whole conduct was remarkably bold; ſeveral files of ſoldiers and ſailors guarded the ſcaffold, and the town guards were alſo reinforced: though immenſe numbers were, for want of room, diſappointed of ſeeing this execution, and all ſeeming for a while in a violent ferment, yet the whole went off undiſturbed and quietly."

Extract of a letter from Hamburgh, May 1.

"The laſt advices from Copenhagen give an account that the King of Great-Britain has granted to his ſiſter the Queen of Denmark, a retreat in his German dominions; and that ſhe is to ſet out accordingly from Cronenbourg towards the middle of this month, on board an Engliſh ſhip, which is to carry her Daniſh Majeſty to Stade, from whence ſhe is to go to Zell. Since this determination that Princeſs enjoys much more liberty than before; ſhe has likewiſe the uſe of the ſecond ſtory of the Caſtle, and leave to walk upon the ramparts, which her Majeſty has done ſeveral times, accompanied by the Grand Maſter, two Ladies of her Court, and the Commandant of the Caſtle. Sir Robert Murray Keith viſits the Queen as often as he pleaſes."

On Thurſday a new commiſſion of Admiralty paſſed the Great Seal, appointing the Earl of Sandwich, John Buller, Eſq; Henry Viſcount Palmerſton; Lord Charles Spencer; Wilmot, Viſcount Liſburn; Auguſtus John Hervey, Eſq; together with Thomas Bradſhaw, Eſq; to be Commiſſioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, &c.

Yeſterday at twelve o'clock, the Exhibition Room erected by the incorporated Society of Artiſts of Great-Britain, was opened under the patronage of the Dukes of Richmond and Northumberland, to a moſt polite audience. The ode, written by the Rev. Mr. Lloyd, and ſet to muſic by Mr. Hook, was performed under the direction of Mr. Giardini, and received with applauſe.

Notwithſtanding the late peaceable proteſtations of Lord North in an auguſt Aſſembly, the following circumſtance, we can aſſure the public, is a fact, that there are juſt now ordered from Deal to Sheerneſs, to be ready for ſea at an hour's notice, three 74 gun ſhips, two bomb ketches, a fire ſhip, and a yacht.——Where this fleet is deſtined is, no doubt, uncertain; ſtill it looks as if matters were not fully accommodated between our Court and that of Denmark.

Major Rogers, who was ſo ſerviceable in the command of a body of Irregulars laſt war in America, has juſt obtained a commiſſion from his Majeſty, for finding out the north weſt paſſage in that quarter. He is to be allowed 3l. a day for himſelf, and four ſhillings each for fifty companions of his own chuſing. From the intimate acquaintance this gentleman has with the country, his knowledge of the Indian language; and above all, having the object much at heart, the ſcheme ſeems to preſage a very ſucceſsful iſſue.

Notwithſtanding the ſeveral efforts that have been lately made to form a new ſettlement on the Miſſiſippi, they have proved ineffectual, as from the late emigrations both from here and the ſiſter country, government ſeems to be convinced of the defects of ſuch a ſcheme, at leaſt for the preſent.

Since the committee has been appointed for the inſpection of Eaſt India affairs, a noble Lord, much intereſted in that inquiry, has preſented to the Lady of a new made Knight of the Garter, a large ſingle ſtone diamond ring, for which he has frequently refuſed 25,000l.

A reſolution was taken at the laſt Board of Admiralty that no foreigner ſhould be admitted into any dock-yard, fort, or any works, without previous leave obtained from the Governors.

Yeſterday evening, exactly at eleven, a moſt terrible fire broke out in a kitchen, ſome ſay at Mr. Jefferies (one of the greateſt wholeſale linen-drapers in London, whole loſs is very conſiderable, in Bank and other notes) others at Mr. Agnes's, occaſioned, as reported, by ſome maids, who were to ſet up all night for waſhing. There was not a drop of water to be had for three hours, and had not the houſes been capital houſes, with ſtrong party walls, inſtead of twenty houſes down, all the ſtreet to the Royal Exchange would have been entirely conſumed. Draper's Hall, which is covered with lead, would have been burnt, had not the firemen got on the top, and with axes broke up the lead to let the water through; it is, notwithſtanding, greatly damaged. Dr. Reeves's coachman was killed by the falling in of the houſe, in endeavouring to ſave ſome of his maſters effects. Two children were taken out of a houſe, and a third, in the confuſion, forgot, who periſhed in the flames. Two maid ſervants, who pulled the Spaniſh merchant's coachman out of bed, being faſt aſleep, are alſo miſſing, who, it is judged, periſhed in an attempt to ſave their cloaths. An iron cheſt, which contained a conſiderable ſum of money, is miſſing, and is ſuppoſed to have been conveyed away by ſome villains.

Between ten and eleven this morning, another fire broke out at a houſe in Wild-ſtreet, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields. Two men jumped out of a two pair of ſtairs window, but there being a great quantity of mortar-duſt in the ſtreet, they happily received no hurt. The fire was ſoon extinguiſhed.

This morning a fire broke out at a gingerbread baker's in Cumber's-court, Southwark, which entirely conſumed the ſame.

Thurſday morning laſt a young lady, daughter to a wealthy Commoner in place, with a fortune of 30,000l. at her own diſpoſal, ſet out for France with her father's valet de chambre.

MAY 11. They write from Leghorn that a conſpiracy had been diſcovered at Cagliari, the Capital of Sardinia, in which 500 perſons were concerned, but the Viceroy being informed of it, hung up the leaders, and diſperſed it.

Among the number of houſes deſtroyed and damaged, are thoſe of Mr. Jefferies, a Ruſſia merchant, where the fire began; Dr. Reeves, Mr. Osorio, Mr. Auguſtine, Mr. Smith, the gunpowder office, Meſſ. Randall and Co. upholders, Mr. Bowland, Mr. Hayward, and Mrs. Hayes, in Auſtin-Friars, and ſeveral houſes in White Lyon court, Throgmorton-ſtreet.

It is not eaſy, upon ſuch a melancholy occaſion, to procure ſatisfactory particulars of the damage done. The loſs muſt be incredible. Mr. Jefferies's ſtock of linens alone, at this ſeaſon of the year, it is ſaid, muſt amount to 30,000l. and moſt of the ſufferers were men of opulence.

It is remarkable that the ſeveral fires which have broke out in the neighbourhood of the Royal Exchange, the very centre of buſineſs, for many years paſt, have made greater deveſtation than in any other quarter of the town.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, April 15.

"The Ruſſians have diſcovered in a convent at Cracow a ſubterraneous gallery, which leads to the Caſtle of that city, and by which means the Confederates in garriſon have hitherto been informed of every thing carrying on againſt them, and ſo been enabled to fruſtrate all the enterprizes of the Ruſſians upon the Caſtle."

MAY 12. Two houſes contiguous to Kew Houſe, are fitted up, one for the reception of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince of Wales and the Biſhop of Oſnaburgh, with their houſhold, and the other for ſome of the younger Princes and Princeſſes.

Extract of a Letter from Copenhagen, April 30.

"In my laſt I gave you an account of the execution of Counts Struenſee and Brandt; but, through hurry, omitted to mention the crimes they were charged with, which are as follow: Struenſee was convicted of having embezzled from the King's coffers almoſt ſix tons of gold, amounting to 225,000l. ſterling; of having expedited many orders from the cabinet, without the King's knowledge; of having been guilty of criminal converſation; of having kept from the King and never delivered to him ſeveral letters ſent to his Majeſty, &c. Count Brandt was convicted of having been privy to Struenſee's criminal converſation, and all his other crimes, without divulging them; and of having laid violent hands on the King's Majeſty, &c. The ſcaffold on which the above criminals were executed is ordered to remain on the place where it now is for a month longer; from which circumſtance it is ſuppoſed, that ſome more of the State priſoners will ſuffer death. The Colonels Falkenſchiold and Heſſelberg are brought to the apartments in the citadel wherein Struenſee and Brandt had been confined."

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, April 7.

"Sunday at midnight two violent ſhocks of earthquakes happened here, which laſted two minutes, and alarmed all Liſbon. I was in company with about 20 perſons of both Sexes at ſupper in the houſe of a Hamburgh merchant. This earthquake was preceded by the howling of dogs, and the melancholy crowing of cocks. The inhabitants of the country are well acquainted with this kind of preamble. All the company turned pale, and immediately we heard a ſubterraneous noiſe, with howlings and whiſtlings as in a great ſtorm. This was immediately followed by an horizontal ſhock, which moved every thing in the room. We ran towards the door, when another ſhock, full ſtronger than the firſt, had like to have thrown us all down. The ſtairs, by which we deſcended, ſhook for two minutes, which is a long time under ſuch circumſtances. We have not yet heard of any damage done by this earthquake; but as the chief force of it was in the country, there has not yet been time for the news to come."

LONDON, June 8.

This day at noon was performed before his Majesty and the Royal Family, the following Ode, written by William Whitehead, Esq; Poet Laureat, and set to music by Dr. Boyce, Master of the King's Band of Musicians.

ODE for his MAJESTY's Birth Day.

FROM scenes of death and deep distress,
(Where Britain shar'd her Monarch's woe)
Which most the feeling mind oppress,
Yet best to bear the virtuous know,
Turn we our eyes—the cypress wreath
No more the plaintive muse shall wear;
The blooming flowers, which round her breathe,
Shall form the chaplet for her hair,
And the gay month which claims her annual fire,
Shall raise to sprightlier notes the animated lyre.

The lark that mounts on morning wings
To meet the rising day,
Amidst the clouds exulting sings,
The dewy clouds, whence Zephyr flings
The fragrance of the May.
The day, which gave our Monarch birth,
Recalls each noblest theme of ages past;
Tells us, whate'er we ow'd to Nassau's worth
The Brunswic race confirm'd, and bade it last.

Tells us, with rapturous joy unblam'd,
And conscious gratitude, to feel
Our Laws, our Liberties reclaim'd
From Tyrant Pride, and Bigot Zeal;
While each glad voice, that wakes the ecchoing air,
In one united wish thus joins the general prayer:
"'Till ocean quits his fav'rite isle,
'Till, Thames, thy watry train
No more shall bless its pregnant soil,
May Order, Peace, and Freedom smile
Beneath a Brunswic's reign."

Died last week, at Liege, Dr. Lefevere, the celebrated gout Dr. who made an ample fortune by twice visiting this kingdom.

CHARLES-TOWN, AUGUST 11.

SUNDAY last the Brig Prince of Wales, William Moore, Master, sailed for Philadelphia, in whom went Passengers Thomas Loughton Smith, Esq; his Lady, and Family; Daniel Huger, Esq; Zachariah Villepontoux, Esq; Mr. Henry Gray, jun. and sundry others.

The same Day his Majesty's Packet Boat the Comet, Captain McDonough, arrived here from Pensacola.

We learn from New-York, that twelve Transports have been taken into Service there, who are since sailed, Part for Boston, and Part for St. Augustine, to take on board two Regiments of Troops, who, it is said, are to rendezvous at Barbados; but what is their further Design is kept a Secret.

Extract of a Letter from St. Kitts, dated July 20, 1772.

"I arrived at St. Vincents the 9th of July, where there is an Army of 3000 Men, 3 Ships of the Line, and 4 Frigates, collected to Attack the Caraibs, who have lately committed such Insults, as makes it high Time they should be obliged to quit the Islands."

Two large and very rich Spanish Ships were lately cast away on the Island of Anguilla.

PLOWDEN WESTON.

 Advertiſements omitted this Week, for want of Room, ſhall be in our next.

It is said that Zell will be only a temporary retreat for the Queen of Denmark, as it is resolved that she shall return to England when matters have somewhat subsided.

The above great lady is to have an allowance of 3000l. a year from England, while she remains abroad.

You may assure the public, says a correspondent, that Lord Mansfield will retire from all manner of public business, previous to the ensuing long vacation, the changes necessarily created by this recess, are not, as yet, absolutely determined on.

An exact list of all the Spanish and French ships of war now in actual commission, or fit for service, has been laid before the Privy Council lately by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford.

The Earl of Chatham has hunted the whole of this season two or three times a week, with the same vigour and spirits that he has done any time these thirty years past.

It is said that a new regiment of horse is going to be raised, whose uniform is to be green and gold, and is to be named the Queen's hunters.

MAY 13. The Queen of Denmark has written a most affecting letter to the King, asserting her innocence of all the criminal accusations against her in the strongest manner; and declaring, that the strictness of her future life shall fully refute the slander of her enemies.

The Queen of Denmark, we hear, wears nothing else but deep mourning. When she first affected this dress, one of her ladies asked her for what she put on such resemblance of sorrow? To which her Majesty replied, 'tis a debt I owe to my murdered reputation.

Died at Oporto, the 20th ult. the Hon. and Rev. James Horrocks, Commissary to the Bishop of London in Virginia.

MAY 14. A considerable sum, it is said, has been privately remitted to a great Lady in the north, to serve her present exigencies.

It gives great pleasure to every friend to the community, to find that the cream-coloured Mr. T. Bradshaw, has lost his election at Saltash. This might convince the King, how much the wretched tools of his government are both despised and detested by the people. However, a profligate House of Commons is to give another instance of its readiness to violate the sacred right of election, in obedience to the Court. Mr. T. Bradshaw is to petition;---and what could not be obtained from the virtuous electors of Saltash, will be slavishly voted by a corrupt majority of the House of Commons. Indeed, why should they not elect Mr. T. Bradshaw, as they did that other tool, Colonel Luttrell; and thus, in a little time, put an end to the trouble, expence, and ceremony of elections, by making themselves both the constituents and representatives of the whole kingdom.

MAY 16. It is reported, that counter orders have been sent to the Commander of the men of war destined to sail for Copenhagen, to conduct the Queen of Denmark to Zell; as it is said, she insists that the charge laid against her is unjust and illegal, and demands a fair trial.

Mr. Haberkorn, a printer, who formerly lived in Grafton-street, Soho, but failed, and settled in Copenhagen, has been sent by the inquisition to work on the fortifications for life, for printing a certain paper in favour of the Queen of Denmark.

It is said that the dowry of the Queen of Denmark, which has been demanded by the British Minister, has been peremptorily refused by the Court of Copenhagen; which refusal it is thought will produce some very unpleasing circumstances.

Our Court is still unsettled in regard to the affairs of Denmark, many resolutions have been taken, but abandoned almost as soon; matters have only subsided for a time, they are by no means finally concluded.

Sir Robert Murray Keith, is not to leave Copenhagen, as has been falsely reported, as a grant has passed lately for his continuance there, with some additional advantages.

We hear that a certain Great Personage has wrote a letter of thanks, in his own hand, to Attorney General Uldahl, for his noble and spirited defence of the Queen of Denmark; and assures him of his protection and friendship, if he chuses to visit this kingdom.

It is said that the Right Hon. Col. Barre is going on a secret Embassy to Spain, as soon as the House breaks up.

MAY 18. It is said that Samuel Martin, Esq; has obtained a reversionary grant in the Exchequer of 1200l. per annum; for him and his heirs.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, May 12.

"They write from Copenhagen, that a second execution is expected to take place there soon, when Messrs. Falkenschiold, Hesselberg, and some other State prisoners, it is supposed will suffer.

"Prince Gallitzin, the Russian envoy at the Hague, received a letter from Petersburgh the day before yesterday, advising that the Russian and Turkish Ministers were to open their congress at Bucharest before the end of the present month. The Prussian Minister has complained to the States General, that the Peasants of Guelderland frequently enter the territories of the Duchy of Cleves, where they cut wood, and commit many other trespasses; desiring their High Mightinesses will put a stop to such irregularities, lest it should give umbrage to the King his Master."

On Saturday Prince Poniatowsky arrived at his house in Pall Mall, from a tour through this kingdom.

MAY 19. Advice is received from Sir Robert Murray Keith, that the Court of Denmark are plotting something more against the Queen, in order to take her off; but that he apprehends before they proceed any further against her, some other persons, who are well-wishers to her, will be cut off, it having been noticed to the public, that there will be more executions in a short time.

They write from Lisbon, that the King of Portugal had just published an edict concerning the English traders to Lisbon and Oporto, from which our merchants entertains the most sanguine hopes.

The same letters add, that fourteen more Jesuits, said to be concerned in the attempt on the King's life, had been put to the torture, but not confessing, were put to death the 19th ult.

ST. JAMES'S, May 29. The King has been pleased to fill up 24 of the vacant stalls of the most Hon. Order of the Bath, by conferring the honour of Knighthood of the Order on his Royal Highness Prince Frederick, (and, as Prince of the Blood, first companion, of the Order;) the Earl of Bellamont; the Right Hon. Lord Clive; Sir William Draper; Sir Horatio Mann, Bart. Sir John Moore, Bart. Sir John Lindsay, Bart. Sir Eyre Coote; Sir Charles Montagu; Sir Ralph Payne; Sir William Lynch; Sir Charles Hotham, Bart. Sir William Hamilton; and Sir Robert Murray Keith: And his Majesty has been pleased to appoint the installation of the said Knights of the Bath to be on Monday the 15th of June next ensuing.

OFFICE OF ORDNANCE, May 26. The King has been pleased to direct, that for the future the Captain-Lieutenants in the royal regiment of Artillery and corps of Engineers shall have rank, as well in the army as in their respective corps, as Captains; that the present Captain-Lieutenants shall take the said rank from this day, and all future Captain-Lieutenants from the date of their respective commissions. H. S. CONWAY.

WAR-OFFICE, May 26. The King has been pleased to direct that, for the future, the Captain-Lieutenants of the cavalry and marching regiments shall have rank, as well in the army as in their respective regiments, as Captains; that the present Captain-Lieutenants shall take the said rank from this day; and all future Captain-Lieutenants from the date of their respective commissions. BARRINGTON.

HEREFORD, May 14. On the 5th inst. Anne Bridgewater, a girl of fourteen, in the parish of Much Marcle, in this county, was delivered of three daughters, who are all likely to live.

Charles-Town, July 28. 1772.

WHEREAS a Number of the Creditors of JERVEY & MILLIGAN, have not complied with the Advertisment issued by their Assignees the 22d of May last:—And, as the Time limited for such of their said Creditors, as shall be willing to accept of a Dividend of their Effects, in Average and Proportion, will expire the 22d Day of August;—those of them who do not by that Day, signify their Acceptance of said Dividend, will certainly be excluded from any Share of the Effects of the said JERVEY and MILLIGAN.

ALL Persons still indebted to the Estate of Mr. HENRY WEBSTER, late of Jacksonburgh, Merchant, HAVE THIS LAST NOTICE, that the Indulgence which has hitherto been allowed them, must now cease, as the Law allows me but a few Months more to close my Administration of that Estate. THEREFORE, all the Bonds, Notes, and open Accounts, if not paid by the 10th Day of September next, will be immediately put into the Hands of an Attorney, to be recovered: And that the several Persons indebted, may avail themselves in Time, of this Notice, I have caused it to be published in all the Gazettes. St. Peter's Parish, July 2, 1772.

JAMES BROWNING, produced before me, a GRAY MARE, about 6 years old, branded on the mounting shoulder PC, a trotter. The owner must prove his property before JOHN GHISOLM, J. P.

Charles Town, July 24, 1772.

THE Subscriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years past, have thereby introduced it to Business.---He acted a Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindness to him, as it was very industriously insinuated, that Rice would not sell at his Wharf: But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himself all his Friends are fully so too, that their Crops landed in large or small Parcels, will sell altogether as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentlemen, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and sell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooses to decline that Business, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will still land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he shall take Care HIMSELF that their Boats have all possible Dispatch.

As to the Safety and Conveniency of his Docks and Stores, he is sure there are none preferable to them in Town in those Respects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more secure from Fire; and 'tis almost impossible for a Barrel of Rice to be lost or stolen in Landing or Shipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as use his Wharf constantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Price:---No prudent Planter but must be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmost Consequence to him, as many, for these three Years past, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) disposed of very much against their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is sure has been the Case, particularly this Year several Times, notwithstanding the Shortness of the Crop.

Messrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themselves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will transact their Business on his Wharf.---To these Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend such of his Friends who are not otherwise engaged.

Christopher Gadsden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for such Parcels of Rice as they purchase at his Wharf.

Williamsburgh, in South-Carolina, July 15, 1772.

ABOUT Four o'Clock in the Afternoon of Yesterday, July 14, 1772, came into my House in Williamsburgh, two MEN, one of them well made, of a dark Complexion, about five Feet eight Inches high, between thirty and forty Years of Age, somewhat round visaged; the other about two or three Inches higher, slimmer made, of a dark Complexion, and seemingly some Years younger than the other; which Persons with Force, broke ten Locks in said House, and feloniously took and carried away Three Pocket-books with a considerable Sum of Money, and Papers of Value; also, a Case of Brass-barrelled Pistols with Holsters; a Quantity of Men's Wearing Apparel, viz. One Suit of dark brown coloured Broad Cloth; another Suit of brown Sagathy, bound with Worsted Ferret; a Pair of red Worsted Shag Breeches; a Crimson-flowered Shag shaped Jacket Pattern; likewise two made Gowns, and several Gown Patterns, with an Assortment of Goods, such as Pedlars carry in the Country; a Pinchbeck Watch out of Repair; One Case of Razors, with a Brass Lock, only the Looking Glass not in it; One Bag Wallet made of Duck, No. 1, bound with Leather; One Silver Watch Chain, and a large Silver Seal, with a Cornelian Stone in it. Whoever will apprehend the above Persons, so that they may be brought to Justice, shall receive TWO HUNDRED POUNDS for both, or ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for either of them.

SUPPLEMENT to the SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE, and COUNTRY JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1772. No. 350. [Printed by Charles Crouch, in Elliott-ſtreet.]

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

WHEREAS the Juſtices of the Peace for the more remote Parts of this Province, do continue to commit all Priſoners to Charles-Town Goal, without having Reſpect to the Diſtrict in which the Offence wherewith they are charged was committed, which renders it neceſſary to remove the ſaid Offenders to their reſpective Diſtricts, there to be tried, agreeable to the Directions of the Circuit Court Act, with Inconvenience to themſelves, and at a great Expence to the Publick: To prevent which, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, That the ſeveral Coroners and Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Province, do, for the future, commit all Priſoners to the Gaol of the Diſtrict wherein the Offences, wherewith they are charged, were committed. And that they do take Recognizances for the Appearance of the ſeveral Parties and Witneſſes, at the Times and Places mentioned in the ſaid Act, for the Courts to be held reſpectively, and tranſmit the ſame, together with the ſeveral Examinations, Depoſitions, and other Papers relative thereto, to the Crown-Office in Charles-Town, agreeable to the Rule made for that Purpoſe on the 11th Day of May laſt, and then publiſhed in the ſeveral Gazettes of this Province, except ſuch as may be taken in the Country Diſtricts, within One Month of the Sitting of the Court for the Diſtrict in which the Offence is to be tried, which they are hereby ordered to return to the Clerk of the Crown, upon the Circuit, or his Deputy, at the Court-Houſe of ſuch Diſtrict, on the Morning of the Firſt Day of the Court, that there may be no Delay in the Buſineſs thereof.

...O N, May 12.

...extract of a letter from the Hague, May 5.

"The Governor of Surinam has repreſented to the Directors of that colony, that unleſs ſtrongly the natives of the country have invaded and demoliſhed ſome of the diſtant plantations; and that, for want of troops, he was not able to quell them. This news has occaſioned a great deal of conſternation, and the Directors are taking the neceſſary meaſures to remedy the evil complained of."

It is amazing with what joy every body hears of the defeat the Miniſtry have met with at Saltaſh. Their preſumption in appointing Thomas Bradſhaw a Lord of the Admiralty, can only be equalled by their weakneſs in not ſecuring him, before-hand, his ſeat in Parliament. His caſe is exactly ſimilar to another very honourable gentleman's, Bamber Gaſcoigne, who being ſome years ago made a Lord of Trade, could not by any means whatever procure himſelf to be rechoſen at Maldon.

The Drapers company have ſaved all the furniture, pictures, &c. in their Hall and Court-room, particularly the fine antique marble chimney-piece there, with the famous original picture of Henry Fitz-Alwin, Eſq; firſt Lord Mayor of London, finely preſerved; another capital full-length picture of Mary Queen of Scots, and James I. when ſix years old. But they loſt their ſine and lantern at the bottom of the Half-ſtairs, which coſt upwards of 150l.

We are told that a ſpot of ground is going to be purchaſed near the Broad Way, Weſtminſter, for erecting a corn-market.

MAY 14. Several capital paintings, engravings, and fine buſts, which were made a preſent to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Gloucester by the Pope, were on Tueſday landed here from Italy.

Preparations are now making for an intended tour of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince of Wales and Biſhop of Oſnaburgh, and Great-Britain, under the protection of the Earls of Holderneſſe and Huntingdon.

It is aſſerted, in the polite circles at the weſt end of the town, that an Iriſh nobleman of very great fortune, has actually entered into a contract to eſpouſe Lady Ligonier, before the expiration of twelve months.

Mr. Chambers, Vinerian Profeſſor at Oxford, does not go to India, as one of the puiſne Judges, as has been mentioned in the papers; as that gentleman has rendered himſelf ſo uſeful in the important department he poſſeſſes, it would be difficult to replace him.

MAY 15. The Chiltern Hundreds have been accepted by a late member for Aldborough in Suffolk, we hear, with an intention of accommodating Mr. Bradſhaw, who, ſince his advancement to the Admiralty Board, has been rejected by the electors of Saltaſh, in Cornwall.

The Poſt-Maſters General have given notice, that orders have been given to the commanders of the packet boats, that carry the mails to Grenada and Barbados, to ſtop two days at Tobago, to take in packets, letters, &c. for the more immediate intercourſe of trade between the ſaid iſlands.

MAY 16. Letters by yeſterday's Holland mail bring the following melancholy account, viz. on Monday evening laſt, juſt before the beginning of the Flemiſh opera at the theatre at Amſterdam, a ſmall rope belonging to ſome of the machinery took fire, owing to a candle having been by accident placed immediately under it, which communicated itſelf to the boxes with ſuch rapidity, that in a very few minutes the whole houſe was in flames. The ſmoke and confuſion was ſo great, that, though many eſcaped out of the houſe, a large number, amounting to near 300 perſons, we are ſorry to inform the public, periſhed in the flames. Among them were many of the firſt families in Holland. Huſband and wife, mother and daughter, were burnt together. In ſhort, when the mail came away, ſo great was the confuſion, owing to the above dreadful calamity, that ſcarce half the buſineſs was conducted by the merchants in perſon. Eight or nine houſes were likewiſe burnt down by the ſaid fire.

Whether Lord North has the firmneſs and integrity his friends ſcribe to him, let the world judge. He meanly ſhrunk, with is tool Jenkinſon, from every debate on the Diſſenters bill: if approved, where was his integrity, in not declaring it? if he diſapproved, where was his boaſted firmneſs in not reſiſting? What muſt we think of the man who ſacrifices the fundamentals of religion to ſtate policy.

The Medway and Florentine men of war of 60 guns each, now at Chatham, are ordered to be got ready to relieve two of Admiral Harland's ſhips, on the Eaſt-India ſtation.

MAY 19. Yeſterday in the afternoon his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Gloucester arrived in town from Italy, and immediately went out for Kew.

General Strode, who was lately tried by a general Court Martial, is acquitted.

From the very conciliating temper of the heads of the preſent committee on Eaſt-India affairs, as well as the occaſional abſence of ſome of the warmeſt of its members, its generally thought this mighty inquiry is likely to terminate as importantly as the celebrated one laſt ſeſſion of Parliament, on the cauſe of the riots. Ever ſince the above inquiry, a total change has happened in the departments of a noble Nabob's family. His lady ſeldom appears in public, and when ſhe does, inſtead of that profuſion of jewels, which let her go where ſhe would, always declared the beſt dreſt woman in company, ſhe now appears totally unornamented. The ſervants are likewiſe ſeldom ſeen in their uſual liveries; and little Kam, the ferret, has even been diſmantled of his valuable pearl necklace.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor decided the caſe of the Stanwick family, which was an equal diviſion of the eſtate to the three ſeveral claimants.

On the firſt day of opening the Exhibition of the Society of Artiſts, Foote was aſked his opinion of a buſt of Lord North's, which ſtands before the entrance of the Great Room: "An excellent likeneſs, 'pon my ſoul," cried the wit, "and ſpeaks as much to the purpoſe as ever he did in his life."

WAR-OFFICE, May 7. PROMOTIONS.

19th reg. foot, James Maxwell, is appointed Adjutant. John Nichols, Quarter-Maſter.

46th reg. foot, Thomas Caſtle, Captain. Henry Mercier, Lieutenant.

38th reg. foot, Henry Bowyer, Lieutenant. ------- Byron, Enſign. John Simon Farly, Lieutenant. Malby Brabazon, Enſign.

Captain George Smith, late in the Portugueſe ſervice, to be Captain of foot in the army.

BRISTOL, MAY 14. On Friday laſt in the evening, a fire broke out at Crediton, in Devonſhire, (at the Weſt end of the town) and conſumed 39 houſes.

MAY 16. Yeſterday morning the celebrated Jonathan Bridges was executed at St. Michael's-Hill gallows. He left Newgate between ſeven and twelve, and arrived at the place about [illegible]. He behaved with remarkable decency, penitence, and fortitude, prayed, and exhorted the people with much earneſtneſs, acknowledged the juſtice of his ſentence, and was ready for [illegible] of all his proſecutors, and was [illegible] ſtanding, his dreadful end.

DUBLIN CASTLE, April 30. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to make the following promotions in the army on this eſtabliſhment, and the commiſſions are come over accordingly, viz.

[illegible]th reg. dragoons, Barton Lodge, Lieutenant. John Bevan, Cornet.

29th reg. foot, Matthew Keoghe, Lieutenant.

40th reg. foot, Alexander M'Kenzie, Surgeon.

[illegible]th reg. foot, Edward Supple, Lieutenant.

COPENHAGEN, April 21. Since the arrival of the laſt Engliſh courier ſome affairs of great importance have been agreed upon, which will ſoon be made public. Sir Robert Murray Keith, the Engliſh Miniſter, went the day before yeſterday to Cronenbourg, and had a long conference with Queen Caroline Matilda. The perſons who are to form her houſhold, are to remain here till further orders.

SILESIA, April 25. The accounts we have from Poland are, that General Branicki, with 800 Ruſſian Infantry and Ulans, has attacked General Schutz with a body of the Confederates, defeated them, and made upwards of 200 priſoners. Afterwards he attacked Kaſſakowſky, and made 30 Confederates priſoners.

VIENNA, April 28. Several regiments of light horſe and huſſars have received orders to go and reinforce the Auſtrian troops, which are deſtined to enter Poland. It is ſaid this corps, which will be compoſed of 22,000 men, and will be joined by ſome battalions of Croats, will march towards Cracovia, and that Count Emerick Eſterhazi, who has now the command, will be replaced by Gen. Haddick.

TURIN, March 15. The King has granted a penſion of 1600 livres to the Sieur Givanetti, a merchant of that city, on account of his numerous family; having 19 children living, and his wife with child of her 24th.

LISBON, April 7. On the 5th inſtant, ſoon after midnight, an earthquake happened here, which continued for two minutes. The weather was ſerene, the ſky ſtarlight, and the air perfectly calm. The direction of the ſhock was from South to North, with equal vibrations, which were ſtrong and laſting. A ſubterranean noiſe was heard at the ſame time, which continued as long as the ſhocks.

PETERSBURGH, April 14. Accounts were received on Saturday laſt from Marſhal Romanzoff, that the Porte had agreed to a ceſſation of arms, and congreſs, and had named Iſmael Beg, (the Reis Effendi) and Oſman Beg, (who was formerly his Reis Effendi) to be their Ambaſſadors Plenipotentiary: Her Imperial Majeſty has appointed Count Gregory Orloff, and Monſieur Obreſcoff, to be her Ambaſſadors Plenipotentiary.

Her Imperial Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed, on Sunday laſt, to make a preſent of 60,000 roubles to Monſieur Obreſcoff, and of 30,000 to Levaſhoff, as a mark of her favour, and in conſideration of the ſervices and ſufferings of thoſe Miniſters.

FROM THE FRONTIERS OF TURKEY, April 1. Marſhal Romanzow, after receiving inſtructions from his Court, relative to the manner in which he was to conclude the preliminaries of peace, ſent a perſon of conſequence to the Ottoman camp, accompanied by 40 Lords, and eſcorted by 200 horſe grenadiers. On their way they were met by a numerous body of Janiſſaries, with their muſick, and were ſaluted by the diſcharge of the artillery. The principal Turkiſh officers came to meet him, and placing the Ruſſian Plenipotentiary between them, they conducted him to the Grand Vizir's tent, who received him with great ceremony and diſtinction, treated him magnificently for three days, according to the Ottoman cuſtom, and made him rich preſents. There was a conference in the night, which laſted a long time. After having executed his commiſſion, this Lord took leave of the Grand Vizir and returned to Moldavia, but left one of the officers of his ſuit, who was ſent to Conſtantinople the next day with four Turkiſh officers. As ſoon as he arrived he went to the Caimacan, to whom he notified that he came from the Ottoman camp. He ſtaid three days in that capital, and was ſent back to the Grand Vizir with other diſpatches; from whence he is to go to Moldavia, to give account of his commiſſion to Count Romanzow. It is not yet known what has paſſed in this negociation, but it is hoped that we ſhall ſoon be informed of it.

COPENHAGEN, May 2. The day after the execution of Struenſee and Brandt, the ſcaffold was taken down by the executioner's valets. Counſellor Struenſee is now releaſed from his chains, and none of the other ſtate priſoners have, as yet, been conducted to the citadel. A detachment of dragoons have entered Aalbourg.

It is aſſured, that the ſentence of Struenſee and Brandt, will ſoon be publiſhed. Colonel Falkenſcield and Lieutenant Colonel Heſſelberg are to occupy the chambers of the executed criminals, from which it is conjectured, that their fate will not be more favourable. Several perſons who were preſent at the execution of Struenſee and Brandt, are ill of the fright occaſioned by that dreadful ſight. That day, Sir Robert Keith, the Britiſh miniſter, waited on the Queen at Cronenbourg, and returned here the next day; ſince which time it is reported, that Queen Carolina Matilda refuſes to conform to the ſentence of divorce pronounced by the Eccleſiaſtical Tribunal; but this merits confirmation.

HAMBURGH, May 5. Letters from Warſaw, of the 25th of April adviſe, that they have received the news, that an Armiſtice has been concluded and publiſhed in the Ruſſian and Ottoman armies for two months. Other letters from Poland ſay, that the Auſtrian troops, which formed the line on the frontiers of that kingdom, are on their march towards Cracow. Theſe troops conſiſt of about twenty-four or twenty-ſix battalions of foot; the cavalry is formed of the light horſe of Loweſtein, the dragoons of Bathiani, Young-Modena, and Lichtenſtein, and ſix regiments of Huſſars; theſe troops are commanded by General Haddick, who has a Lieutenant General and five Major Generals under him. We learn alſo from Poliſh-Pruſſia, that the Pruſſian troops there, have been re-inforced with ſix regiments; that the King of Pruſſia is expected at Marienwerder, next month, and 'tis conjectured, that the fate of Poliſh-Pruſſia will then be determined.

AMSTERDAM, May 14. The Counſellors Deputies to the Admiralty in this city have given the following notice:

"The States General of the United Provinces give notice by theſe preſents, to all and every one, that the Emperor of Morocco, having as good as declared war againſt the Republic, they keep on their guard againſt the Corſairs of the ſaid Emperor; take precautions, that on the one hand the merchantmen do not begin to commit any hoſtilities, and on the other to take care that they be not ſurpriſed unawares."

Laſt Monday evening a fire broke out in the Play-houſe, ſituated at the Keyzers-gragt, which occaſioned a terrible conflagration, the conſequences of which cannot be ſufficiently lamented. The Flemiſh actors were performing an opera, when between the hours of eight and nine, the fire was perceived to reach the ſtage. Endeavours were immediately uſed to extinguiſh it, but to no purpoſe. In two minutes the ſtage was all in a blaze, and the chandeliers falling down, cauſed an inexpreſſible diſorder among the ſpectators, every one flying to ſave his life. Abundance of people were trampled down in the croud. None but thoſe who were neareſt the doors had any chance of eſcaping the danger; but numbers of others of the moſt reſpectable rank, who were in the boxes and pit, had the misfortune to loſe their lives. In the mean time the fire increaſed to ſuch a degree, that in a few minutes the whole town ſeemed illuminated. The flames, driven by a violent North Eaſt wind, communicated to ſome houſes in the Runſtraat, but were happily got under by means of ſome engines. In the memory of man, a conflagration ſo dreadful by its circumſtances, and melancholy in the loſs of ſo many perſons, was never ſeen in this city. We already know a few of the moſt conſiderable burghers who have been the victims of this unhappy accident. The number of the others cannot as yet be aſcertained, nor the damage eſtimated, no more than the value of the riches conſumed by the flames. In ſhort, the conſternation here is general, this diſaſter having put ſuch a number of families in mourning.

NAPLES, April 21. There has lately happened ſome very conſiderable ſtorms of thunder and lightning and hail in this kingdom; the moſt remarkable of which was at and near Girgenti in Sicily, where the hailſtones weighed 20 ounces, and killed great numbers of cattle, and 84 perſons were killed by the lightning. The Commandant of the Caſtle, to make it ſtand the ſhock, fired [illegible] cannon but the cloud being [illegible] ſtorm, began [illegible] from [illegible] the [illegible] powder.

WARSAW, May 2. The Confederates have driven all the Confederates out of Great Poland. It is reported here, that the Auſtrian troops that have orders to enter Poland, amount to 40,000 men. If credit may be given to public accounts, there is a triple alliance on foot between the Courts of Peterſburgh, Berlin, and Vienna.

HAMBURGH, May 15. Letters from Warſaw mention, that ſince the taking of the caſtle of Cracow, the Auſtrian troops, in number about 24,000 men, are advanced within two miles of that city; and it is thought they will act in concert with the Pruſſians, to re eſtabliſh tranquillity in Poland. In ſhort, it is ſaid that the King of Poland will marry a Princeſs of the Houſe of Auſtria.

LISBON, April 21. Letters received from Algarve adviſe, that from the 6th inſtant, they have had every day freſh ſhocks of the earth; that five of theſe ſhocks had been preceded by violent ſubterraneous noiſes, which had ſo much terrified the people, that they had ſince all lived under tents, the houſes being greatly ſhattered.

COPENHAGEN, May 12. Queen Matilda continually walks on the ramparts of the Caſtle of Cronenbourg. The Engliſh ſhips deſtined to convey her Majeſty to Stade, are not yet arrived.

BOSTON, JULY 13.

TWO Engliſh ſeamen arrived laſt week in a veſſel at Nantucket from the Havana, where we learn they had been impriſoned ſix or ſeven years; one of them came to town this week, and informs, that he was taken on the Spaniſh Main, and carried priſoner to the Havana, for being concerned in an illicit trade, (as it is phraſed by thoſe who do not chuſe to reſent the behaviour of the Dons) during his impriſonment he ſuffered many hardſhips, and at length growing old and infirm was releaſed. He ſays, there were forty-ſix ſtout able-bodied Engliſh ſeamen impriſoned at the Havana when he left it.

JULY 10. On Tueſday laſt the Repreſentatives of the people of this Province, in a full Aſſembly and only one Diſſentient, paſſed a humble Petition and Remonſtrance to the King, praying that his Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to take into his conſideration, the grievances which his ſubjects in America labour under, by reaſon of the Acts of Parliament for raiſing a revenue without their conſent. In this petition the making proviſion for the ſupport of the Governor independent of the General Aſſembly, by virtue of the Acts aforeſaid, is ſet forth as a grievance which threatens the ruin of the conſtitution.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) JULY 13.

Laſt Monday ſailed the Beaver ..... It might reaſonably be expected, (if any thing reaſonable could poſſibly be expected from the preſent adminiſtration of Great-Britain) that ſaid ſhip was gone to the Havana, to demand a number of Britiſh ſubjects, who have, for a long time, been ſtarving in the loathſome goals at that place! But ſuch an act of humanity can ſcarce be even hoped for in the preſent ERA!-----Fortunes for numerous dependants are not to be obtained by ſuch Chriſtian acts of benevolence and mercy.

The Beaver ſloop arrived here from a cruize on Saturday night, without having taken a ſingle prize, the coaſt being, as we learn, entirely clear of natural enemies: And we ſhould be extremely glad to inform our readers of its being as clear of all other enemies.

PHILADELPHIA, JULY 22.

Since our laſt arrived here, Captain Lawrence, from Porto Rico, by whom we learn, that there were at that place a number of Engliſh ſailors, and two Captains, whoſe veſſels were ſeized by the Spaniards, under frivolous pretences, they impriſoned, and were dying by inches; and that one Captain Smith, of Antigua, who formerly ſailed out of this port in the capacity of a mate, died there in May laſt by the ill uſage of the Spaniards.---Query, Would it not be better for the Britiſh Miniſtry to employ his Majeſty's ſhips, who are now poking into every river, creek, &c. diſtreſſing the ſubjects of the colonies, to defend and protect the ſubjects of Great-Britain from the tyrannical gripe of the Spaniards, who are every day ſeizing ſome of them.

Captain Ruſſel, from Dominica, informs, that Admiral Man, with the ſquadron under his command, the troops and artillery from Dominica, Grenada, and other iſlands, were arrived at St. Vincents, where, with the aſſiſtance of other regiments daily expected, it was ſaid, they were to form a line to keep the Indians in awe, and to ſtop their communication with the French, who had ſeveral times inſtigated them to be troubleſome to the Engliſh ſettled in that iſland.

Laſt week were landed at New-Caſtle and this place, three hundred and forty paſſengers, from on board the ſhip Roſe, Captain George, from Londonderry.

Saturday laſt arrived at New-Caſtle, the ſhip Prince of Wales, Captain McKenzie, from Belfaſt, who landed upwards of 350 paſſengers, all in good health.

On the 26th ult. the French General arrived at the Mole from Port-au-Prince, and declared to the Engliſh merchants and Captains of veſſels, that while they conformed to the limitations and reſtrictions preſcribed, the trade carried on by them there, ſhould meet with his protection and encouragement.

JULY 23. Captain Rollings, in the ſchooner Swan, ſailed from Wilmington on the 20th of May laſt, in the Evening, arrived at St. Chriſtophers the 13th of June, ſailed the 22d, and arrived at Wilmington the the 4th of July, in the morning, in all 44 days, and 12 hours.

Extract of a letter from St. Chriſtophers, June 25, 1772.

"Capt. Gilpin, in the brig Succeſs, ſailed from here the 31ſt of April laſt, in the evening, and arrived at Wilmington (as he informed me) the 13th of May; lay in port until the 23d, ſailed for this port, and arrived the 14th of June, in the evening, in all 45 days."

JULY 27. From Charles-Town, in Maryland, we are informed, that on Saturday, the 18th inſtant, a moſt inhuman murder was committed within a few miles of that place, on the body of Mr. William Simpſon, a gentleman from Georgia, on his travels through North-America for his health. He was ſuppoſed to have had a conſiderable quantity of money about him, which induced the villain or villains to perpetrate this horrid crime. The body is not yet found, or his bags and papers; but the horſe on which he rode was taken, with the ſaddle all bedawbed with blood.----Two men have been ſince apprehended and committed to Charles-Town goal on ſuſpicion of the above murder.

A few weeks ago, about twenty Indians, in paſſing through Ann Arundel to Anapolis, in Maryland, in order to complain to the Governor of the encroachments of the back ſettlers on their territories, took up their lodgings in a Gentleman's barn, when the Chriſtian inhabitants aroſe in the night time and maſſacred every one of them.----Tell it not in Gath, neither publiſh it in the ſtreets of Aſkelon!

Captain Henry, from Hiſpaniola, relates, that a French frigate lay there, which had boarded ſeveral Engliſh veſſels, and finding ſugar on board, they took the Captains and put them in priſon twenty-four hours, and then releaſed them.

SAVANNAH, (Georgia) AUGUST 5.

We are informed that five or ſix white people and a negro were killed about ten days ago by ſome Cherokee Indians about 150 miles above Auguſta, and that the Wolf, one of their headmen, was on his way to Mr. Cameron, the Commiſſary, to promiſe ſatisfaction by delivering up the offenders.

On Sunday the 19th inſt. the houſe of Mr. William Johnſon, at Auguſta, was ſtruck with lightning, and one of his children, a girl about nine years of age, who happened to be near the chimney, the part that was ſtruck firſt, was killed on the ſpot. The reſt of the family, four or five in number, who were in the room, were more or leſs affected, but ſoon recovered from the ſhock; Mrs. Johnſon was conſiderably ſtunned, and had part of her handkerchief burnt.

Yeſterday the Hon. James Hume, Eſq; was ſworn in and took his ſeat as a Member of his Majeſty's Council for this province.

KINGSTOWN, (St. VINCENT) July 4.

On Monday the 2nd inſt. arrived here from Grenada, a detachment (conſiſting of 50 men) of his Majeſty's 70th regiment, under the command of Captain Chamberlayne; and on Tueſday laſt arrived here his Majeſty's ſhips of war, the Crueſent, Captain Connor, the Kennington, Captain Clarke, and the Favourite, Captain Biggs, all from Antigua.

On Saturday laſt was publiſhed in Kingſtown, an Act of the Legiſlature of this iſland, entitled, "An Act to empower the perſon commanding in this iſland for the time being, by and with the conſent of the Council, to order out a certain number of negroes and mules, to be employed from time to time as occaſion may require." And,

On Wedneſday laſt was alſo publiſhed, "An Act for laying a duty of Powder on all veſſels trading to and from this iſland, for the proteaction and defence of the ſame."

Some day arrived here from Grenada, the Honourable Harry Gordon, his Majeſty's Chief Engineer in this Government.

The ſloop Botteourt, Captain Halliburton, arrived here on Sunday from Dominica, having on board a great quantity of ordnance ſtores, and a detachment of the Royal Regiment of Artillery under the command of Lieutenant Roſs; and on Friday morning Captain Halliburton ſailed for Grenada with diſpatches from his Excellency the General.

On Monday his Majeſty's ſhip of war the Favourite, Captain Biggs, ſailed from Kingſtown for Queen's-Bay. And

On Tueſday the Kennington, Captain Clarke, ſailed for Tyrrel's-Bay.

James Fraſer, Eſq; is elected repreſentative for the pariſh of St. David, in the room of Robert Coningham, who declined ſerving.

On Thurſday laſt died at Queen's-Bay, Mr. John Pope, much regretted by all his acquaintance.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the ſaid Province, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the Continuation of the BOUNDARY-LINE between this Province and North-Carolina, which has lately been run in Purſuance of His MAJESTY'S INSTRUCTIONS to the Governors of both Provinces, ſeveral Plantations which have been ſettled by Virtue of Grants from the Governor of North-Carolina, fall within this Government: In Order to preſerve to the PROPRIETORS of ſuch GRANTS, the equitable Right they have to the Lands mentioned therein, I DO, by the Advice of His Majeſty's Council, iſſue this my Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly forbidding all the Deputy-Surveyors of this Province from laying any Warrant on Lands for which Grants have been obtained in North-Carolina: AND notifying to all Perſons poſſeſſed of, or intitled unto, ſuch Grants, that they may have Grants for the ſame from this Government, on their producing ſuch Grants, without their perſonal Attendance at Charles-Town, provided Application is made for the ſame within TWELVE MONTHS from the Date hereof.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Charles-Town, this Nineteenth Day of June, Anno Domini, 1772, and in the Twelfth Year of His Majeſty's Reign. C. G. MONTAGU.

By His Excellency's Command,
THOMAS SKOTTOWE, Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

CHARLES CROUCH,

Has received in the laſt Veſſels from LONDON,

A CONSIGNMENT

Of the ſeveral ARTICLES undermentioned, which may be had at his Printing-Office in Elliott-Street, on the moſt reaſonable Terms, viz.

A FRESH PARCEL of Dr. KEYSER's GENUINE PILLS,

With FULL DIRECTIONS for their Uſe in all CASES. Where may be ſeen, A NARRATIVE of the Effects of Dr. KEYSER's MEDICINE, with an Account of its ANALYSIS, by the Members of the Royal Academy of Science.

Dr. NELSON's ANTISCORBUTIC DROPS, which have been found by many Years Experience, to ſurpaſs all other Remedies hitherto diſcovered in the Cure of the Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Yaws, Venereal Diſeaſe, Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes, Ulcers of all Kinds, &c.

ESSENCE of OIL of MINT. This is an excellent Remedy in Want of Appetite, reachings to vomit, and vomiting itſelf. It ſtrengthens the almoſt Paralytic Weakneſſes of the Stomach, and may be uſed either internally or externally; it is taken on a Lump of Sugar, from ten to twelve Drops.

Dr. RYAN's Incomparable WORM-DESTROYING SUGAR PLUMBS.

Dr. HILL's genuine TINCTURE of VALERIAN. This pleaſant Cordial and enlivening Medicine, is good againſt all Nervous Diſorders, Fits, Head-Achs, Weakneſs, Heavineſs, and Lowneſs of Spirits, Dimneſs of the Sight, Vapours and Melancholy, all Kinds of Convulſions, and Hyſteric Complaints, Epilepſies, as alſo againſt the Sickneſs of the Stomach, and Flatulencies, Obſtructions, and the Convulſive Aſthma, &c. The proper Uſe in all the above Caſes, may be ſeen in the Directions given with each Bottle.

Dr. BOERHAAVE's GRAND BALSAM of HEALTH. An admirable Remedy for the Dry Belly-Ach, Cholic, Griping in the Bowels, Pain in the Stomach; it cleanſes the Stomach, and procures an Appetite.

ESSENCE of BALM of GILEAD, a grand Reſtorative of decayed Nature, good in all Seminal Weakneſſes, Hypochondriacal and Nervous Diſorders, with the Variety of Symptoms which indicate a weak and infirm Conſtitution,

Its cordial and balmy Quality, renders it alſo an agreeable palatable Liquor, and prodigiouſly refreſhing in the ſultry Heat of Summer; preventing thoſe Sinkings which over-power the Spirits in hot Weather. The proper Uſe of this noble Medicine may be ſeen in the Directions.

STOMACHIC LOZENGES. They ſtrengthen and fortify by their balſamic and nutritive Virtues, the tender Veſſels of the Stomach, help Digeſtion, and promote Chylification; they melt in the Mouth like Sugar, are of a moſt agreeable taſte, and fail not to correct the Breath, and the impure Exhalations of the Stomach.

Where alſo may be had,

JOYCE's GREAT AMERICAN BALSAM, extracted from the beſt Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Diſorders, incident to human Nature; proved from Experience in New-York, Long-Iſland, and elſewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balſam, Eſſence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe here, for the ſeveral Diſorders hereafter mentioned.

For common green or freſh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dreſſing, by cloſing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balſam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Veſſels are divided, &c. it ſtops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the moſt inveterate Ulcers, only waſh them and keep them clean, uſing firſt if there be any proud Fleſh, a common Cauſtick, to take the Excreſſence away, then apply the Balſam on Lint. If the Ulcers ſhould happen to be fiſtulous, inject by a Syringe, and after cloſe the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balſam, and ſo repeat. There are Witneſſes undeniable of the Balſam alone curing a Fiſtula in Ano, now preſent in New-York: The Author of this Balſam, (under God) will engage to cure a Fiſtula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Inciſion, except as much by a Lancet to make Way for Injection, and no more. For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breaſt, Inflammation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obſtructed by tough viſcid Phlegm; by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning faſting, and at Night going to Bed. It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruiſes, nothing is better, for it ſcatters coadgulated Blood, and ſtops Blood that might be occaſioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of Veſſels inwardly. In the Cure of Pleuriſy, after Bleeding (where it is required) give a Tea Spoonful three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then 20 or 30 Drops of ſpirituous Nitri dulcis, that is the ſweet Spirits of Nitre.---It cures Conſumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they paſs the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a full Tea Spoonful mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Doſe. It ſtrengthens the Nerves, and is good in all Nervous Diſorders, by taking of it inwardly, and anointing the Parts outwardly, keeping warm.

THE AGUE TINCTURE.

The Patient muſt take a Table Spoonful of the ELIXIR, two Hours before the Approach of the Fit, and be immediatly put to Bed, and excited to ſweat, by being very warmly covered. Every Half Hour repeat the Doſe in the ſame Quantity, until he or ſhe has taken Four; you are to obſerve the giving it with a little Sugar, to make it palatable, and let the laſt Doſe be given juſt as the Fit comes on; this will infallibly perform the Cure.
